

CAROLINA
FOR THE KIDS

2017 Carolina For The Kids Grants

Bringing Play & Joy to Child Patients

Art Supplies for Patients on Our Inpatient Pediatric Acute Care Unit

130 crayons, markers, and colored pencils

10 stained glass paint kits

130 coloring books

1,000 pieces of construction paper

96 tubs of Play-Doh

Child's Play Project

Providing artistic & educational opportunities for families and patients of the Children's Specialty Clinic

NC Zoo Educational Visits one visit/month

Ukelele Lessons one visit/month

Caricature Artist Visits one visit/month

Interactive Storytelling two visits/month

Diabetes Action Figures

30 children will receive a doll or superhero action figure with its own diabetes care kit

Newborn Critical Care Center Reunion

We proudly cover food, event space, entertainment, and decorations for the Newborn Critical Care Center Reunion so that previous graduates of NCCC can reunite with the staff and providers who cared for them

Enhancing Care with Additional Resources

Pediatric Diabetes Patient & Family Library

100 books to serve 300 patients

Provides age-appropriate books about living and coping with diabetes

Pediatric Diabetes Education Bag

100 books to serve 100 patients

Provides patients with educational material and gives the family supplies for successful management of diabetes

Ketogenic Therapy "Getting Started Kit"

Serves 60 patients

Provides resources to help families overcome the hardships of eating a ketogenic diet to treat intractable epilepsy

Essential Guide for Parents of Premature Babies & Early Arrival Baby Journal

210 guides & journals to serve 210 families

Provides families with more information about their premature infant and a journal to document their NICU journey

50 Jerry the Bear Stuffed Animals

A new-age teaching tool for children with Type 1 Diabetes

Food Models for Pediatric Nutrition Education

Helps to educate 650 patients about Type 1 & Type 2 diabetes

NICU Family Support in the Newborn Critical Care Center

Funds 400 lunches & Materials for Parent Education

Aims to educate NICU families and staff as well as to improve the NICU experience

3 Diabetes Camp Scholarships

Helps campers learn about diabetes

35 Hemiplegia Day Campers

A therapeutic day camp program for children diagnosed with hemiplegia

Maddox's Memory Bears

Provides personalized patchwork style teddy bears that serve as memory objects for families who have had a child pass away in the UNC Newborn Critical Care Center

90 bears per year

30 families served

3 bears per family

Pediatric Intensive Care Unit Bereavement Day Seasons of Change

A day of support for families who experience the death of a child in the PICU at UNC Children's Serves about 50 people, 20 families